

PARDEE IS NOT OUT FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

Governor Declares He Has No Aspirations in That Line at Present.

SACRAMENTO, June 17.—The Bee tonight will print the following: Governor Pardee was shown an editorial clipping from an Oakland paper, in which his availability as a running mate for President Roosevelt in 1904 was set forth. It was pointed out that while California would be honored by placing Pardee on the national ticket, the State has serious claims upon him in his present official position and his renomination and re-election as Governor were confidently predicted. The editorial referred to was very complimentary to the executive and when he read it through he said:

"H'm. That's very flattering, isn't it?" and proceeded with the work upon the desk before him. "Well, what have you to say about it? Have you any aspirations to be vice-president?" was asked. "Why no, this is the first I have heard of it." "Will you be a candidate for re-election three years from now?" was the next question. "I don't know," replied the Governor. "The act is I am so busy with the present administration of this office that I haven't time to look that far ahead."

BODIES OF VICTIMS FOUND IN THE DEBRIS.

Women Are Terrified and Refuse to Again Live in the Stricken Town.

HEPPNER, Oregon, June 17.—Seven bodies of the flood victims were exhumed from a pile of debris one hundred feet thick this morning. Of the seven, one is a Chinaman and one a woman about 30 years old, unidentified. Two hundred people, many of them women with children, asked for permission to sleep on the floor of the Catholic Church, the court house and school house during last night. The authorities granted permission but were surprised at the repetition of the request made Monday night. It is not destitution but fear that causes the inhabitants to quake with apprehension whenever a cloud hovers over the canyons above town. Many women declare that they will never live in the town again and are imploring their families to desert the place. This feeling does not wear off and it is said that tonight refuge would be sought for some time yet at the public buildings and the church which stand well up on the hill. Despite the effort to soothe and calm the people generally are under the spell of the horror and business has been abandoned.

FUND FOR THE SUFFERERS.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 17.—The committee who have charge of the fund for the relief of the Heppner flood sufferers have collected $10,000. They are busily engaged today in placing on board the cars supplies of all kinds, which will be shipped to Heppner. Besides food supplies, axes, shovels, ropes and other articles to be used in clearing away the debris of the wrecked town, are being sent. A carload of lime will be shipped at once and spread over the vegetable matter which is fast decaying under the hot sun. It is feared that much sickness will result and every precaution is being taken to prevent it. Hundreds of men are already

PROPERTY LOSS OVER MILLION.

SPokane, Wash., June 17.—Just how many perished in Sunday's flood at Heppner, Oregon, may never be known. It is believed many bodies have been buried in the mud deposited in the valley and may never be found. Reports from here this morning state that crops in the valley between that town and Heppner are practically ruined. This, with the damage to the railway, may bring the total property loss up to $1,000,000. The railway is badly wrecked and may not be opened to Heppner for a week, although a train reached Lexington this morning. A telephone report states that there are now plenty of doctors and even more men than are needed to do the work, it being estimated that nearly 1000 people have rushed into the little town since the disaster.

More money is wanted and a temporary shelter for the homeless is desired. It is predicted that the town will be rebuilt, but the district north may be shunned in the future. One drowning is reported between Lexington and Heppner, the victim being Mrs. Frey, who lived on a farm.

ROYAL HUNT CUP WON BY KUNSTLER

LONDON, June 17.—At Ascott today the royal hunt cup was won by Kunstler. Imperious was second and Handicapper third. All the placed horses were outsiders. Kunstler started at 33 to 1 against Imperious was 100 to 6 and Handicapper 20 to 1. William C. Whitney's Pallantree and J. R. Keene's Kearsage were among the starters. King Edward and the Prince of Wales were present. The King's horse Meade was again the favorite for the Biennial stakes, but St. Elmin took the race.

ROSIE JAMES TELLS HER STORY TO THE JURY AND ASKS FOR $50,000

HOW ROSIE JAMES LOOKED AFTER THE GRAFTING OPERATION WAS COMPLETED. THE BLACK MARKS SHOW THE STITCHES.

ROSIE JAMES, AS SHE LOOKED BEFORE THE ACCIDENT.

The testimony offered today at the trial of the case of Rosie James, who is suing the Oakland Transit Consolidated for $50,000 damages was of a highly dramatic character and surgically interesting to spectators and the court. The girl with bared bodice showed how her right arm, close to the shoulder, had been placed against her torn cheek and bound there for three months until the two had grown together. Dr. W. S. Porter, her physician, then using her as an illustration, explained how the operation was performed. The patient had been placed in a plaster of Paris cast for three months until cheek and arm adhered. The knife was then used and they were cut apart, the skin left attached to the face. The operation was successful. The skin grew but the face is still disfigured. A patch of skin of about two square inches is of a lighter shade than the rest of the face. The symmetry of the lines is gone and the cheek has somewhat of a protuberance where there should be a hollow. Up to this morning the character of the testimony has been of the commonplace order. The details of a night ride from Berkeley, her standing on the front platform of the car and then her fall has been testified to by numerous witnesses. Then the girl herself was put upon the stand.

When her name was called he repaired to the Judge's chambers and reappeared with the waist of her dress removed. Her arms were bare and on one she bore the scar of the operation. A shrunken, hollow, marked the place which was robbed of its plumpness. The testimony was complete in its details and a revelation of modern surgery. Miss James herself is pronounced a remarkable witness, with intelligence beyond her years, and her story was not shaken by the rigid cross-examination of Attorney Bell for the railway. Besides the injury to her face the smaller bone of her right leg was broken.

Her testimony was to the effect that she was standing on the front platform of the car as it was very crowded. The car was travelling at a high rate of speed when it suddenly struck an irregularity in the track and the shock made her lose her balance and she was whirled off the platform and struck by another car going in an opposite direction. Her face went through one of the heavy windows of the car and the flesh of the right cheek was literally torn off. Attorneys Chapman and Reed are looking out for the girl's interests in the matter. George James the girl's brother, submitted to the surgeon's knife so that some of his skin might be grafted on his sister's arm.

WOMAN SAYS SHE IS GUILTY OF PERJURY

WILL TRY AND SAVE AL HULSE FROM DEATH ON THE GALLOWS.

BAKERSFIELD, June 17.—Jennie Fox, opium fiend, habitue of the tenderloin and paramour of Al Hulse, who is now in the county jail charged with complicity in the assassination of the late Marshal Packard and Deputy Sheriff Tibbet, has stated that she perjured herself when she testified that Hulse was in the room in Chinatown in this city when the officers were shot to death while attempting to arrest the outlaw, McKinney, who was killed during the melee. On the witness stand the French woman said Hulse had a hand in the shooting. Hulse later threatened to charge her with perjury. Now she prefers it is intimated to being charged with such offense by the State rather than by the man with whom she had lived with so long. Her testimony, it was thought, would go hard with Hulse, but Attorneys for the defense state that owing to her character, she would have been impeached. One Smith, an aged man, the other "star" witness for the State in the Hulse case, is now in the county jail serving a sixty days' sentence on a charge of vagrancy and disturbing the peace.

MISS MOSBACHER WILL MARRY

Mr. and Mrs. G. Mosbacher announce the engagement of their daughter Sadie J. to Mr. S. Behrends a young business man of Los Angeles.

GOVERNOR HAS A BUSY TIME

HE MAKES SOME APPOINTMENTS TO THE STATE BOARD.

SACRAMENTO, June 17.—Governor Pardee had a busy time today, delegations calling upon him from various parts of the State to interview him upon different matters. The Governor's mail brought him letters containing three resignations, all of which he accepted. One was a resignation of Merritt J. Reid of San Francisco from the State Board of Agriculture. E. W. Howard, San Francisco, stock-raiser; F. J. Burke, Santa Clara, stock-raiser; J. W. Wilson, Sacramento, experienced horseman; William Johnston, Colusa, farmer and stock-raiser. Wilson and Johnston have served on former boards.

RELIANCE IN AN ACCIDENT

TEN FEET OF THE MAST-HEAD IS TORN AWAY BY THE WIND.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The topmast of the Reliance broke off ten feet from the masthead just after that yacht, together with the Constitution and Columbia, had crossed the starting line in a race for a cup offered by Commodore Adams of the Larchmont Yacht Club.

WALKIREZ WILL BE HELD TO ANSWER FOR CRIME.

Brutal Negro is Anxious to Get Even on the Woman Who Brought Him to Justice.

The preliminary examination of Victor Walkirez, for the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth Leroy, was resumed before Judge Smith in the Police Court this morning at 10 o'clock.

The court room was thronged with spectators, the seats inside the rail being reserved for ladies and this was occupied by colored people in all shades of the color of that race. Some had faces as black as Erebus while others appeared almost as white as Caucasians. All displayed the greatest interest in the proceedings.

ACCUSED LOOKS WELL.—The accused sat within a few feet of the witness stand, with his back to the audience. He was clean-shaven, wore a white shirt and collar, and a dark suit, the same which he had on when he was arrested but which seemed to have shed some experience with a renovator. The general appearance of the murderer was that of a nutty barber or Pullman porter rather than that of a sullen, wearied and disheartened desperado, such as he appeared when he marched into jail a few days ago, ironed from head to foot, to answer for his crime. The earlier part of the hearing was conducted by Prosecuting Attorney Leach. The reading of Walkirez' confession was done at the instance of District Attorney Allen.

CEPHAS OLIVER.—The first witness was a colored man named Cephas Oliver. He testified that he resided in the rear of the house of the late Elizabeth Leroy, 1050 Grand avenue, and that he had known the deceased for about 21 years. He was present when the remains of Mrs. Leroy were resurrected from the grave under her home. He also identified the remains of the woman at the morgue. He had last seen the deceased alive on the afternoon of May 4.

CHIEF HODGKINS.—Chief Hodgkins testified that the first time he saw the accused was while he was in bed in the jail in Hollister. The Sheriff of the county introduced witness and Captain Peterson to the defendant. The accused said to him: "I am guilty. I am the man who did the whole thing. I am the man who am in trouble." The chief said he asked Walkirez what trouble he referred to and the accused said that it was the killing of that woman. He was asked what woman and replied: "Mrs. Leroy." Witness further stated that the accused had said that he was glad witness had come because he was going to give himself up anyway. He was going to do either that or kill himself.

On the return trip to this city, the chief said that Walkirez had detailed facts of the killing at his own volition. The defendant admitted again that he had killed the woman and that he had strangled her on the head with a hammer, but if Mrs. Ross had said that he did, then he must have done so. The remains were taken downstairs after the killing and left in the cellar. The next morning the defendant buried the remains. The chief said he took some money which Mrs. Leroy was counting at the time he murdered her. He denied having going out of the house of Mrs. Leroy on the night of the murder. He denied to the witness that he had gone out with Mrs. Ross to the saloon of a man named Harvey, where it had been alleged that he had exchanged silver for gold.

STORY OF THE CRIME.—The witness then detailed the story of the crime, such as it has been told in THE TRIBUNE, following it up with a description of the chase which resulted in the capture at Hollister.

The chief declared that he had offered the defendant no inducement to tell his story and that he had told him that anything he said could be used against him.

On June 4, the chief said, the statement was made by Walkirez to himself and several other officers under similar circumstances, as was that made on the return trip from Hollister, so far as informing the accused of his right to refuse or to answer questions at will.

The accused was asked if he desired to cross-examine the witness and replied that he had no questions to ask. Deputy Coroner Quillen told of taking the remains of Mrs. Leroy from the hole in the basement of the home of the deceased. He removed them to the yard and took it out of some quilts which were wrapped around it. He then took the body to the morgue. Witness said that an autopsy had been held on the remains. When the body was removed from the grave the woman's tongue protruded several inches and that organ was in the same condition when the autopsy was held.

The wedding will probably take place in the early autumn.

BRIDGE INSPECTED.

ALAMEDA, June 17.—The San Leandro bridge, the property of the Southern Pacific Company, was inspected by a party of experts from the construction department last Monday. Not only the superstructure but the piles below water, also, were examined and soundings taken. This was done with a view towards ascertaining the size of piles needed to repair the bridge.

As a result of the investigation it is reported that the work of replacing the east and west ends will be undertaken immediately. About 800 feet of the Alameda and about 1200 feet of the eastern end will be practically rebuilt. New piles, ties and rails will be used and considerable time will elapse before the work is completed.

HE WAS SAVED.

ALAMEDA, June 17.—The family of H. Tugby, of 851 Oak street, have received a telegram from Mr. Tugby that he was in the flood at Heppner, but escaped with the loss of his baggage. Mr. Tugby is a commercial traveler and makes Heppner his regular run.

He also sent us by express a large invoice of WHITE AND FANCY VESTS. They are now ready for your inspection. Other outing garments are going fast SO BUY NOW.

LIBRARIAN GRAVES IS PLEASED WITH THE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

ALAMEDA, June 17.—There was no regular meeting of the Library Improvement Association last evening owing to the lack of a quorum. Those present decided to adjourn until after the fourth. Librarian Graves said he was quite pleased with the way subscriptions had been coming in. Although this is a bad time of year to open a subscription list, as so many people are away for the summer, yet $1200 has already been paid in or promised. The money will be used to purchase fixtures for the new library building.

The work of moving from the old quarters in the City Hall is progressing satisfactorily. The reference books have been installed along the east side of the new building. The bound volumes of magazines are in stacks in the northeast corner of the room, the government reports and duplicate copies of little used books are in the basement. All that remains to be brought over are the reference books and the papers and magazines. The reading room will be on the west side of the second floor. The tables will run east and west, so as to give the readers a side light. In the old reading room the newspaper stands were so arranged around the walls that the light would shine in one's face instead of on the papers.

When the remaining books are on the shelves and the railings installed, the new library will be one of the most pleasant and convenient in the State.

WILL PLAN TO HELP FAIR

PROMINENT ALAMEDA PEOPLE
WILL MEET THIS EVENING.

ALAMEDA, June 17.—President Tappan, of the Alameda Gentlemen's Charitable Association, has called a special meeting of the organization at 8 o'clock this evening, at the Recorder's court in the City Hall. Final arrangements are to be made for the "Country Store," which the society is going to conduct for charity at the Oakland carnival.

He was released on $5 cash bail to appear for trial this morning at 10 o'clock. When his case was called, Judge Tappan dismissed him as it was his first offense.

TWO SMALL FIRES.

ALAMEDA, June 17.—A telephone message brought the Webb avenue chemical to the southeast corner of Pacific and Minturn avenues at 4:20 yesterday afternoon, where there was a grass fire. The blaze was extinguished before any damage had been done. At 9:35 an alarm of fire was sounded from box 75, where there was another small grass fire at the northwest corner of Central avenue and Ninth street. The blaze was extinguished in a few minutes. No damage.

ARGUMENTS IN JACKSON CASE.

JETT AND WHITE'S FATE WILL SOON BE IN HANDS OF JURY.

JACKSON, Ky., June 17.—Arguments in the trial of Jett and White are proceeding today. The most sanguine predict nothing more serious than a disagreement, while others anticipate acquittal. Under these conditions the reign of terror continues. Following the action of the grand jury yesterday in releasing those held for arson and the alleged attempt last night to kill those who are implicated in the arson cases, causes anxiety as to what may happen to those in the murder trial, after the trial closes.

Ewon, who was said last night to have fled from camp here, did not leave until this morning. A guard of soldiers saw him safely aboard the train. He sent several of his children away yesterday to relatives and friends at different places and secured a place for his wife and younger children here until he can make other arrangements.

When court convened today Judge B. French, leading lawyer for the defense of Jett and White, began his opening argument before Judge Redwine. He declared that County Judge Blanton, who had said that James Crawford had been arrested had lied. Judge Blanton sprang to his feet and approached Judge French, but Elmer Jones threw himself between the men and Judge Redwine finally secured quiet in the court room. Judge Redwine then threatened to send Judge Blanton to jail for contempt of court and admonished Judge French to be more temperate in his language.

MUSKET DESCENDING IN RAND FAMILY FROM SIRE TO SON.

So far as known, there are only three muskets of the War of the Revolution in this State. One of these is in the possession of a man in San Francisco, the second is in the museum in Golden Gate Park and the third is the priceless inheritance of retired police officer, Hall B. Rand of this city, who bore it today at the services at Sunset Park in memory of Bunker Hill. The weapon is shown in the portrait of Mr. Rand, which appears above.

This musket is an heirloom in the Rand family, and is more treasured than would be almost its weight in gold. It is an heirloom, the record of which can not be doubted and is all the more valued because it was used on many a battlefield in the revolution in which the integrity and persistence of the colonists were displayed, and above all, on the field of Bunker Hill.

The musket was originally shouldered by the grandfather of the present owner, whose name was William Rand, a native of Epsom, N. H., and who rushed to the front with the New Hampshire boys at the first call to arms, risking himself at Bunker Hill, Saratoga, Fannington and a number of other places, in all of which something was done to aid and defend this country of the domination of a foreign despot.

The records of New Hampshire are today wonderfully complete concerning the achievements of her sons, even in that distant day and show William Rand to have been a member of several commands from November, 1775, to a much later period, showing that he had true patriotic fervor and was never willing to risk even his life in defense of his native land.

William Rand died at the age of 83 years in Epsom, where he was born and at his death, the musket descended to his son, Tobias Rand, who died at the age of 72 years in Suncook, N. H. Tobias was the father of William Rand and Hall B. Rand, the latter of his city, who appears in the accompanying picture. From Tobias the musket descended to the older son, William, who died in Portsmouth, N. H., and from William, Hall B. Rand has received the relic.

Hall B. Rand is now near the seventies, but is still a hearty gentleman and when he passes away, there will not be wanting members of the family to whom the heirloom may descend.

The old fire-piece differs in several particulars from the arms of the United States, which have succeeded it. The barrel has a length of three feet, the stock a length of one foot and five inches. The diameter of the barrel is three-fourths inches and the weight nine and a half pounds. The principal novelty in the piece, to soldiers of the present time, is the flint-lock, which was superseded by the Springfield rifle, later by the breech-loader and still later by the Krag-Jorgensen, which is now the weapon of the infantry arm of the service. The old flint-lock has lost its place as a means of offense and defense in modern warfare, but in its day, it did its work well and will always be held in grateful remembrance in this country for the part it played before the march of invention had placed it among the relics of by-gone years.

LOVELORN DEWEY CANNOT FORGET
PRETTY LILLIE SHER-MAN.

Gates and bars cannot daunt the love of Ernest Dewey for the pretty Lillie Sherman, the Berkeley laundry worker and he insists that as soon as he has served his sentence, which he is now undergoing at the County Jail, that he will go back to Lillie and see if he cannot persuade her to change her opinion. "No" to a modest yes. Dewey's father arrived here this morning all the way from Oklahoma to help his erring son out of his difficulty and get him to go back with him to the wild and free country of the Territory, and forget his passion. But young Dewey refuses. There was a touching scene between the father and son at the County Jail this morning when the two met after an absence begun several years ago by Dewey's running away from his home, which was then in Wichita, Kansas. The father had not waited a day after receiving the message that his son was in trouble before starting for the West. And he expected to take the well-dreaded home with him but his pleading is in vain. The son is of age and cannot be forced and he says that he must see the only girl in the world for him and that he could not think of placing all those miles of country between himself and the object of his absorbing love.

C. O. Dewey, the older, is heart broken over his son's refusal. He has a mother, brothers and sisters who want to see him. The father can give him a home, horses to ride and a life teeming with excitement but it won't go with Dewey. The young man was arrested some time ago in Berkeley on the complaint of the girl he so admires. It is a case of "wasting sweetness on the desert air" so far as she is concerned. She wants none of him and while she told Justice of the Peace Edgar that she was not afraid of him she does not wish to be bothered by his attentions. He was given thirty days and in the District Attorney Everett Brown that he had a family and as he had seemingly been well raised a letter was sent telling him of his plight. He had been admonished several times before final action was taken in the matter and if he continues his annoyance after he is liberated he will be taken before the insanity commissioners and examined for his mental condition.

While Hazel Lola and her sister were doing their turn on the stage at the Novel Theater yesterday afternoon a thief entered Hazel's dressing-room and stole a jeweled brooch valued at $12.50. The police have been notified of the loss and Detective Shorey is investigating.

POLICE COURT CALENDAR.

Police Court Calendar, Wednesday, June 17th: Henry Benson, John Kelly, Mose Albark, R. Brown, W. Armstrong, C. Doherty, Mike Hayes, drunk, $6 or three days; R. Crosby, violating bicycle ordinance, judgment suspended; Manuel Nelson and Neil Henningsen, battery, $15 or seven and a half days; J. B. Donovan, drunk, judgment suspended; Fred Muller, vagrancy, judgment suspended; Arthur Kennedy, battery, continued to June 19th.

FOUND GUILTY OF BATTERY.

Manuel Nelson and Neil Henningsen were sentenced in the Police Court this morning to pay a fine of $7.50 each or serve fifteen days in the City Prison. They were found guilty of battery upon John Keller, the nine-year-old son of F. J. Keller of Piedmont.

SHERIFF UNABLE TO FIND MEN WHO SAW WILLIAM CUL-
LEY CUT.

Michael Engan was placed on trial this morning on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, but a search warrant is unable to produce the witnesses in court necessary for a conviction. The witnesses have all defaulted and the prosecution has the man on its hands. A special venire of jurymen has been issued returnable this afternoon and in the meantime a determined effort is to be made to unearth some of the men who saw Engan commit the assault. Engan was arrested April 17, for cutting Wm. Culley with a knife in an early morning fight at the new subway being constructed at Emeryville. The wound was a dangerous one, going into the neck and just missing the jugular vein. Culley threw dirt out of a ditch in such a way that it went over Engan and a fight ensued. Culley was cut and taken to the Receiving Hospital and later swore out a warrant for Engan's arrest. C. A. Bentley, Wm. Prisco and Timothy Shea, were given as witnesses to the occurrence, but they all have vanished. Rather than testify against him they have left, evidently condoning his offense and the probability is that Engan will escape for lack of evidence to convict.

CASE CONTINUED.

The case of Arthur Kennedy who is charged with battery upon the person of 9-year-old Alice Renwick was called in the Police Court this morning but as the trial of murderer Walker is in progress, the case was continued to June 19th.

FULLER COMPANY ORDERS ITS MEN OUT UNTIL THEY ARBITRATE.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Ten thousand employees of the George Fuller Construction Company were thrown out of work today by order of the company, thus making the lockout in the building trades complete. While not joining the Employers' Association, the Fuller Company took this action on the same grounds as those maintained by members of the association. Today the 150,000 men who are idle because they are members of the building trades unions, have been served with the usual ultimatum that they will remain idle as long as the individuals refuse to sign the agreement or plan of arbitration proposed by the Employers' Association.

EPPINGERS PUT UP A FIGHT.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16. — Henry Ach, attorney for the Eppingers, went to the United States District Court this morning and attacked the validity of the proceedings thus far had on behalf of the creditors in the matter of the bankruptcy of the firm of Eppinger and Company and the Pacific Coast Warehouse Company. The attack was the result of the citation issued yesterday and directed to Joshua Eppinger, secretary of the Pacific Warehouse Company, and Herman Eppinger, president of the company, commanding them to appear and show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of court in refusing to turn over their books and accounts to Henry Wadsworth, the receiver appointed by the court.

The attorney for the Eppingers assailed the jurisdiction of the district court as an answer in the contempt proceedings. The court ruled that this was admissible as an answer. The attorneys for the creditors asked for time to look up and prepare authorities. As a consequence, the court ruled the matter submitted, with two days to the attorneys for the Eppingers to present reply briefs. In the meantime the Eppingers will retain possession of the books. Ach's main contention was that the bankrupt corporations did not come within the jurisdiction of the national bankruptcy act and that therefore the proceedings in the United States District Court were null and void.

The attorneys for the creditors will file their brief on Thursday and attorneys Ach and Dunne will have until Saturday to answer. Then the court will determine the question of jurisdiction.

The Grand Jury committee, to which was entrusted the preliminary investigation of the affairs of the firm of Eppinger & Company and the Pacific Coast Warehouse Company, has finished its work and will report to the Grand Jury at a special meeting.

WOMAN IN ROLE OF DETECTIVE.

Mrs. Martha Bauer, aged twenty years, living at 1024 1/2 New Broadway, was arrested last night on complaint of Miss Elsie Nelson, a domestic, employed in the Brunswick Hotel. The woman was charged with petit larceny. The two women were friends, but while in the Bauer woman's company several times a late, Miss Nelson claims that she lost small sums of money. Yesterday, when she was expecting a visit from the Bauer woman, Miss Nelson placed a mark on two half-dollars placed them in her purse and left it on a table. When Mrs. Bauer called, Miss Nelson left the room for a moment and upon her return saw that the purse had been disturbed. She notified the police and when Mrs. Bauer was searched at the City Prison, the marked money was found on her person. She made no attempt to deny her guilt, according to a previous arrangement, she was allowed to forfeit $10 bail in the Police Court this morning.

WAITERS GIVE UP. THEY ASK TO BE GIVEN THEIR OLD POSITIONS IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, June 16.—So many of the waiters and other striking hotel and restaurant employees have returned and asked to be reinstated that nearly all of the restaurants and cafes that have been closed for several days have either opened their doors again or announced their intention of doing so tomorrow.

The conditions in all the hotels are reported satisfactory. The strike leaders hold an early conference to decide upon the proposal of the committee from the steam power council. All parties to the controversy were asked yesterday by that committee if they would submit their grievances to arbitration. Answers from all are looked for at a series of conferences today.

MINERS ADOPT RESOLUTIONS.

SCRANTON, Pa., June 16.—President Mitchell's advice has prevailed and all talk of striking has been dropped. The convention of the anthracite mine workers adopted unanimously resolutions providing that each district should vote separately on the election of the representatives to the delegates in the different districts separately, after which the convention by a rising vote ratified the constitution.

Another resolution was adopted providing that all grievances, instead of being thrashed out in debate, should be given to the conciliation board for consideration.

BLOOM GETS DIVORCE.
A divorce was granted today to William Bloom from his wife, Flora, by Judge Greene, on the grounds of cruelty. Bloom also accuses his wife with undue dominion with a policeman and to this end has secured charges against Captain Jacobus with the Police Commissioner. He charges Jacobus with having broken up his home. The case of the policeman is still before the commissioners, while the courts have given Bloom his freedom to take effect in a year on now.

THRILLING SCENES IN THE NORTH

HEPPNER, Ore., June 16.—H. K. Bennett was just finishing his day's work in his store when he says he felt that something fearful was going to happen. It had been raining and thundering for some time. He had turned home and told his wife they had better go up on high ground. She laughed at him but he insisted so strongly that at last she accompanied him. Hardly had they reached a safe limit when they saw a wall of water fully 25 feet high sweeping down the canyon.

He rushed down below the First National Bank building and aided many in getting out. He said the road was fearful and a crash of buildings grinding together and pulverizing by a flood will long be remembered.

When the flood was at its height, the water was knee deep in the bank. Mitchell Wyberry was sitting on the porch of a boarding house on Court street when he heard the roar of the on-coming water, and he looked up to find the cause. He saw a house coming toward him from the crest of the flood. He beat a hasty retreat to higher ground and reached safety just in time to see people drowning and in possible help. To see buildings swept in from below down the canyon was appalling. Dr. Hargis who has an office in the Odd Fellows' block on Main street, was attending a party when he heard the roar of the water. He rushed out of the building and saw the water coming down the canyon.

When he saw the water coming down the canyon and he tried to reach his house, but it started to go out. He had just time enough to flee to the hillsides, but part of the way was running in water knee deep.

August Landel succeeded in reaching his home and got his three children, but the water overtook him before he reached safety. He clung to a tree and held on until the water subsided enough for him to escape.

THRILLING TIME.
Oscar Heppner had one of the most thrilling experiences. He saw his house being destroyed and determined to save his family. Crawling over logs, trees and parts of broken houses, he reached his home and succeeded in saving his family. He was badly bruised by his perilous trip.

Geo. Conser, cashier of the First National Bank was down stairs in his house when the flood came. He took his wife and rushed up stairs just as the house started to go out. He was able to hold his wife up as he was able to save her from drowning. They drifted down the canyon for about a mile and landed up against another house. Mr. Conser kicked the window out and succeeded in climbing onto the roof and escaping.

Just low far south the canyon was flooded with water. Evidence seems to point that for a long distance back there were similar disasters to that at Heppner.

AID FOR SUFFERERS.
The body of Miss Mary, daughter of Mr. Flory, who lives about ten miles south, was found in Heppner to which place it had been washed.

N. J. H. Gillett, who lives nearly twenty miles south, started in to aid the sufferers as soon as he heard of the disaster. He found that the waterspout had destroyed property and lives for about twelve miles southward.

Along the road the scene was terrible. In places the roadway was washed out six feet deep and other places the water had drifted down equally as high. The destruction of property is fearful. Farms are washed out, gardens destroyed and every house near the creek was brought down with the flood.

KILLED HIS MAN.

MINEFIS BATTLE OVER A ROAD AND ONE IS SHOT.
ROCK RIVER, Wyo., June 16.—News reached here from Rockdale, seventeen miles from this place, of the killing of James Mullany by James Watts Sunday morning at a mining camp near Rockdale. Watts and Mullany were mining. Watts surrendered to the authorities and claimed self-defense as a justification. It is said that the men had a dispute over the question of a roadway through a mining claim and that Mullany attacked Watts with an axe, inflicting a serious wound in the back of his head. Watts got a gun and shot Mullany while he was still in pursuit. Mullany was a Denver man. He had been mining in Wyoming ten years and was about to retire, having amassed a competence.

ANARCHIST IS DRIVEN OUT.

SAN JOSE, Cal., June 16.—A man giving his name as Kelschhauser, who has been working in the Pacific Manufacturing Company's mill at Santa Clara, has been driven out by the men there under rather sensational circumstances. The man was an avowed anarchist and when his utterances finally became so open the employees circulated a petition to secure his discharge. This was signed by every man in the mill but before it reached the boss he got word of it and told the man to leave at once, this he did.

There are threats of tar and feathers if he returns. The men in the mill all belong to the union.

UNION HOLDS OUT.

SAN DIEGO TEAMSTERS VOTED NOT TO GIVE UP THE BATTLE.
SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 16.—At a meeting of the teamsters' union last night a proposition to call off the strike was voted down, and it was decided that there would be no giving in on the part of the union. State Agent Coffey of San Francisco was here to urge the maintenance of the strike and he will try to form unions among laundry workers, gravellers and others.

FUNDS FOR NEEDY.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Additional funds to the amount of $5000 have been sent from this city to relieve the wants of the destitute in the flood districts. Of this sum, $1000 was telegraphed to Topeka, a like sum to Kansas City, and the remainder to Gainesville, Ga. The committee has received contributions amounting to nearly $25,000. Probably $5000 more will be distributed to the sufferers today.

IT WAS ONLY THE PAINTER.
It was only a painter. A clamorous ringing of the burglar alarm in the Treasurer's office shortly after noon today put the two buildings on both sides of Broadway where county business is transacted into a commotion. The electric attachment sounding in the Sheriff's office brought over six heavily armed deputies on the run. The county's strong box was approached from a half a dozen different directions and unless the painter was found standing on the plain button, listening to the noise and wondering what the trouble was with the office.

RATE CLERKS MEET.
CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 16.—Rate clerks of the Central Passenger Association, who meet in Cincinnati next Thursday to try and have the Lake Shore abandon its men transferred from Cleveland to San Francisco for the Grand Army encampment. The rate named is said to be an infringement on the difference by other lines and unless the Lake Shore Company complies with the wish of the clerks, a general overhauling of rates to the Pacific Coast is probable.

LARGE PLANS FOR THE FOURTH.

CELEBRATION WILL BE ADVERTISED IN SEVERAL COUNTIES.

The Fourth of July committee of the Merchants' Exchange held a meeting last night.

The finance committee announced that there is now $3000 on hand as a result of subscriptions. Chairman Gier said he hoped to increase that sum another thousand this week.

As to decorations, it will be a gala day for Oakland. Redwood branches will adorn the trolley poles of the principal streets. The Transit Company has given permission to hang pennants and flags from their guy wires.

The press and advertising committee had to wrestle with the problem last night of how best to advertise the celebration and in conjunction with that of the street-fair.

Chairman Williams said that he would have immense posters printed and distributed throughout this and the adjoining counties, and that the work of advertising them would commence about ten days before the fourth. On the posters the street-fair will be announced in connection with the celebration.

The literary exercises on the fourth will be of the highest order.

P. M. Fisher last night said: "We have secured excellent talent for the day and I consider that for the reception of that talent, the platform in the court should be decked and arranged as never before. And you gentlemen of the decoration committee should make it a bower of beauty."

In connection with the exercises, it is interesting to note that there will be benches placed throughout the court. This will prove of great relief to the older citizens, who have had, heretofore, to stand for several hours in order to prove their patriotism.

AMUSEMENTS.

This week at Idora Park Theater is one of the most interesting and entertaining that has ever been presented in Oakland. Among the Eastern and European stars who are entertaining the crowds are John J. Welch, expert dancer and monologue artist; Clement Baker, juvenile cornet soloist; Nellie Bruce and Della Ross, petite contortion dancers; Harry Sylvester, illustrated song vocalist; and Ben Plante, the clown who performs on horizontal bars. The bioscope is being given as usual and Friday night will be amateur night.

The admission to the gallery is free, the dress circle 10 cents and the orchestra 25 cents. The balloon ascension and high dive will be given as usual every afternoon and evening.

THE DEWEY. There are many new faces at the Dewey Theater this week. A great program is being carried out.

NANCE O'NEIL. Nance O'Neil will play at the Macdonough next Friday and Saturday evenings in "La Tosca."

HINDMAN BLOCK IS SOLD.

The Hindman block on Eighth street, between Broadway and Washington streets, was sold by George W. Austin to J. S. Myers for $38,000. The lot is 50 by 100 and the building is three stories, solid brick, and was built about ten years ago by E. Hindman, a local capitalist.

NEW YORK, June 17.—At the annual meeting of the Central and South American Telegraph Company and the Mexican Telegraph Company held here the directors of the former company were all re-elected, while on the board of the Mexican Telegraph Company Cornelius Van derbilt was elected to succeed George G. MERCHANTS HOLD MEETING.

DISCUSS MATTERS OF INTEREST TO THE PEOPLE.

At the meeting of the Merchants' Exchange last night the success which the proposition to build a boulevard from Oakland to Hayward, met with at the Board of Supervisors Monday, was reviewed. The Exchange last night appointed J. P. W. Schast a committee of one, to confer with and assist the viewers already appointed to select the roadway.

The spirit of enterprise of the Merchants' Exchange was clearly shown last night when Mr. Walker, secretary, introduced to those present Mr. H. H. Harrah, the representative of the Reese Water-proof Manufacturing Company. Mr. Harrah explained that his motive in appearing before the exchange was to obtain influential backing for a manufactory, at present in its infancy, but which had before it a bright future.

He stated that a proposition was on foot to locate a factory at Fruitvale where waterproof articles might be manufactured on a large scale. He was well received by the Exchange.

On motion of Secretary Walker, a committee of five, consisting of Messrs. Schast, Fairchild, Walker, Farwell and Howe was appointed to investigate Mr. Harrah's statements and make a report to the Exchange in the near future.

The Merchants' Exchange announces that local merchants and business firms are invited to join in and help make the County Store at the coming fair a success, by donating odds and ends from their unsold or surplus stock.

"There are many things," said President Gier, "lying around our stores that would be very welcome at the County Store. Arthur Farney, the chairman of the committee of the County Store will be glad to hear from those who wish to donate and as the money will go to worthy charities, I hope our merchants will respond."

Adjourned.

THE FIRST CASE. SPOKANE, Wash., June 17.—The first case under the State's new gambling laws came before Judge Richardson in the Superior Court today. Fritz Dieckel pleaded guilty to the charge of dealing in stud poker. Judge Richardson sentenced Dieckel to one year in the penitentiary. Appeal has been taken on the ground that the law is unconstitutional. Graves and Graves have been retained and it is said that all boss gamblers in Washington will contribute.

WHO SHALL HAVE SOCIETY WOMEN PLACE? AT FAIR.

TROUBLE FOR GRAND MARSHAL GEORGE ARPER TO SETTLE.

THEY WILL WORK HARD TO MAKE BOOTHS A SUCCESS.

Grand Marshal Arper has trouble on his hands. The Fourth of July Fair Committee has a problem to solve.

The committee is withholding the names of the two bodies who have shown their American spirit to be less than their feelings of fraternal pride, but they are whispered to be a prominent temperance organization and a prominent lodge or fraternal order. Both of them are semi-military and this is where the rub comes in for the Grand Marshal.

Both have been invited to participate in the parade on the Fourth and both have accepted with the provision that they be allowed the right of line to be preceded only by the military. One bases its claim to that position on the fact that there is a rule which has been made by their board of officers to the effect that they shall occupy this position in all parades in which the participate, and the other claims the age of their organization as a ground for the alleged honor. Neither will budge from the position it has taken. Both of them are ready to present a formal request for the right of precedence. If they appear at all, and each will place about 1200 men in line.

Grand Marshal Arper has spent the greater portion of the week attempting to gain a concession from one or the other without success, and has decided to refer the matter to the Executive Committee. A resolution has been passed by that body as follows:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of the committee that the placing in line of all organizations shall be entirely in the discretion of the Executive Committee, and that no requests for position shall be conceded as a prerequisite to a parade on the Fourth of July and all organizations must occupy such position as may be assigned them by the Grand Marshal."

It was voted that a copy of this resolution be sent to each of the contesting factions and that an invitation be sent to each to send a representative to meet with the chairman of the Executive Committee and with the secretary of the Merchants' Exchange and there by effect a settlement of the difficulty. This motion was passed unanimously and the matter was laid over until the next meeting.

A MILLIONAIRE'S TROUBLES.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Edwin D. Mooers, reputed to be worth several million dollars, spent last night in a cell in Ludlow street jail. He is booked to sail for Europe today, his name and that of his mother appearing on the list of the liner New York. Unless $1,000 is deposited as bond for his appearance to answer a suit for divorce brought by his wife, whom he married at El Paso, Tex., March 1, 1900, he will be unable to sail today.

Mooers is a well known figure in New York, Chicago and San Francisco. In her affidavit, upon which Judge Clark issued the order of detention, Mrs. Mooers describes herself as being without property or income. She says that she appealed to her husband last month for a contribution to her maintenance, and that he refused it and told her he was going abroad for a long time to "get rid of the whole thing." She says she has lived apart from her husband since October, 1902.

Mr. Mooers, who is not yet 30 years old, declined to discuss the matter for publication.

A LONG AUTOMOBILE RIDE.

BOSTON, June 17.—Charles J. Gidden, ex-president of the Erie Telephone Company, with Mrs. Gidden, has started from Boston on an automobile trip to Christiana, Norway and northward, within the Arctic circle. They will tour England, Ireland and part of the continent before starting northward.

APPOINTED SECRETARY.

BOSTON, June 17.—James M. Perkins, who was private secretary to Governor Wolcott and secretary of the commission, which had charge of the New England exhibition at the Buffalo Exposition, has been appointed secretary of the commission named by Governor Bates to arrange the Massachusetts exhibit at the St. Louis Fair in 1904.

Many charitable institutions of Oakland have already secured booths in the Oakland street fair and carnival, which will open June 23 at Lincoln Plaza.

The "French doughnuts," which Fabiola sold last year, will again be placed on sale, and sets of balls for the children. Mrs. James P. Dunn is chairman of the committee and Mrs. J. W. Dornin will dispense the fortune balls.

Among the young ladies who will assist during the fair are Miss Crellin, Miss Jane and Miss Ethel Crellin. Mrs. Robert M. Several other charities will have booths, but their arrangements are not as yet complete. Among them will be the Old Home, the German Ladies' Relief Society, the Mothers, the Young Women's Christian Association, the Catholic Ladies' Aid Society and the Appomattox Relief Corps, No. 6, Grand Army of the Republic.

Oakland's Manager May Go East in Search of More Talent.

EWING MAY GO EAST.

POPULAR MANAGER IS LOOKING FOR BUNCH OF NEW PLAYERS.

Unless he can make more satisfactory arrangements by wire and letter than he has in the past, J. C. Ewing will take a trip East after new players to strengthen his crimples. A little use of his figuring pad and pencil has shown Cal that it would be cheaper to make the trip than to keep the telegraph wires hot, send advance money and then have the prospective player pocket the funds. The Quinlan matter is still fresh in his mind and he promises to call upon the courts to assist him in punishing the player.

The first game of the Oakland-Sacramento series went to the former team yesterday by a score of 6 to 5.

Papa Lohman differed with the umpire during the Sacramento game yesterday and was put off the grounds for becoming objectionable.

Fitzgerald was on the slab for Alque Fisher, while Cooper occupied a like position for Oakland. Both pitchers were accorded uncertain support that caused the attendance to wonder to the end how the score would look.

Bill Hanlon played his first game for Seattle this afternoon. Since his arrival on the Coast he has been sick and is not yet in the best shape to go on the diamond.

With the coming of Seattle into our midst is a new pitcher with them. His name is Dorhan and he hails from Syracuse. Carrick, another new one on the pitching staff, is also with Wilson.

PRINCE KARL.

CLARENCE HEAD.

WILL HELP THE RELIANCE.

ATHLETES WILL TAKE PART IN THE FAIR PROGRAM.

The members of the Reliance Athletic Club are spreading themselves on the arrangements for their circus which is to be one of the features of the Street Fair next week.

While the Reliance Circus was the great attraction at the Elks' fair last year, the show that the club will put on this year will eclipse it. Effort at that time in ever respect. More talent has been secured and the members of the club who are to take part have been for many months adding to their acts until now the club is prepared to give a fine entertainment.

One of the best acts will be a flying return, a sensational flying trapeze act in which Prince Karl, late of Flying Jordans and Clarence Head will be seen. Karl will also be seen in his sensational horizontal bar act in which he is accredited as being one of the best artists in America.

Other acts will be double trapeze by Grimm and Durnham, single trapeze by Clarence Head, stick race by George Olsen, flying rings by George Schlitter of the Olympic Club, barre jumping by Professor Stone of the Olympic Club, the famous Leandro Brothers in their marvelous acrobatic feats and a sensational jockey act by one of the best bare back riders in the West. The troupe of clowns headed by Maurice Stewart the well-known comedian, will be one of the features of the show and one which will surely please the old as well as the young. Among those who will assist as criers are Arthur Hanft, Dick Dunning, C. W. Brook, Jack Scanlan, Harry Hatt.

The members of the club at large will act as peanut butchers. In this capacity will be President E. M. Fitzgerald, Senator Russ Licens, Assemblyman Phil Walsh, City Treasurer Felton Taylor, G. B. Daniels, Assistant Postmaster Paul Schaffer, Dr. W. J. Smyth, Pat Cadozan, Jas. B. Dean, Chas. and Fred Elsey, Walter Cole, Louis and Chas. Lefevre, Rowell Beebe, M. W. and James J. Jett and many others of the club members.

AMATEURS IN LING.

MONTHLY BOXING PROGRAM BE CARRIED OUT TONIGHT.

The monthly boxing bouts for amateurs under the auspices of the San Francisco Athletic Club, will take place tonight in San Francisco and some very good matches have been arranged, which will furnish plenty of excitement and introduce new men of promise. The San Francisco Club enjoys a splendid reputation for putting on first-class amateur bouts and tonight's attractions will be witnessed by a good crowd.

Among the new ones that Alex Gregorin will introduce to the sporting public of San Francisco, is Harry McLeod, who has earned the title of "Little Star" by clever work. He will go against Joe Troy. Another of the new faces is Mike Smyth, who has come to the front with a bound. He has been doing some great work at the club's gymnasium during the past few months, and will be sent against Jack Conway tonight. He will have to fight his best in order to get away with Conway.

Jack Grey is another stranger or pugilistic circles, who makes his debut in the light-weight class tonight. All who have seen him at work say he is a real "McCo" and is expected to give a good account of himself against Ely Donahue, who is a former champion of the club. Donahue is a former champion of the club and is being avoided by all of the amateurs about the bay because of his terrific right. Murray has announced that he is ready to meet all comers. The last match on the card is that between Joe Reilly and Mike Farber. It will be their fourth battle and each has a knockout to his credit. They are both hurricane fighters and there is something doing every minute of the time that they are in the roped arena.

A water-weight from Portland by the name of Jack Welsh is scheduled to meet George Murray this evening. The latter is one of the hardest hitting amateurs and is being avoided by all of the amateurs about the bay because of his terrific right. Murray has announced that he is ready to meet all comers. The last match on the card is that between Joe Reilly and Mike Farber. It will be their fourth battle and each has a knockout to his credit. They are both hurricane fighters and there is something doing every minute of the time that they are in the roped arena.

LOST HIS LIFE FOR A TRIFLE.

James Summers lost his life yesterday while trying to recover a piece of property which he had dropped in the bay while working on the new Emeryville wharf. Summers was carrying a track gauge and let it fall into the water. The gauge drifted rapidly out, and Summers, fearing trouble if its loss was discovered, plunged in after it. The tide was running quite strong and after reaching the wooden rod Summers was unable to swim back. Planks were thrown to the exhausted man, but his strength rapidly failed him, and in spite of his fellow workmen's efforts he was drowned. Summers was formerly employed at the Oakland race track as a rube, but at the close of this season he turned his attention to other duties.

BISHOP STILL IN THE PARTY.

The executive committee of the Labor Union party met last night and discussed several matters of interest to the party. It was understood that some action would be taken looking toward securing Sheriff Bishop for his recent action in depositing labor men as deputies. Although the subject was brought up no action was taken.

LIVELY BOXING FOR YANGER.

LITTLE FELLOWS ARE WORKING HARD AT TRAINING QUARTERS.

At Benny Yanger's training quarters at Sheehan's beach resort yesterday afternoon, there was some lively boxing in which the Chicago boy participated with Jack Cordell and Monte Altell. Cordell, who is an amateur, made a very good showing against Yanger and proved to the latter that he (Yanger) has a very poor guard for his head.

He seemed to be able to land at will and throughout their bout he kept landing his left on Yanger's face, which would partially blind the Chicagoan while he whipped his right across to the head. Yanger told Cordell to come as hard as he wanted to and not once did he lose control of his temper at the rain of stiff punches. He did not attempt to punch back very much, which was a disappointment to the few visitors who were permitted within the quarters.

Yanger next took on Monte Altell for four rounds and this was a repetition of the Cordell bout, Yanger showing the same defeat in guard. Benny lays no claim to being a clever boxer and is a fighter pure and simple. He can take a world of punishment and deliver a knockout blow, and after all, these two requisites are what win fights.

After his work yesterday, he weighed exactly 130 pounds and states that he can make 128 pounds very easily any day that he starts in with that purpose in view. He loses no opportunity to enjoy the salt air to the full and avers that it is building him up.

SAN LEANDRO MAN IS ROBBED.

FLASHES HIS MONEY ON THE STREET AND LOSES FOUR TWENTIES.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—Gustav Silva of San Leandro came to town on Monday evening and proceeded to see the sights by the glare of the electric lights. During his wanderings about the city he encountered four strangers in the vicinity of Sansome and Battery street about 5 o'clock in the morning, while he was counting the cost of his nocturnal perambulations. Incidentally five shining "twenties" glittered in his palm, and like a flash one of the strangers grabbed four of them from the verdant countryman and took to his heels. Silva immediately gave chase, and shouted at the top of his voice as he overtook the thief. His cries attracted the attention of Special Policeman James Blackwell, who ran to his assistance and upon hearing the cause of the hue and cry, took the stranger into custody. The fellow said that his name was Thomas Doonan, and was escorted to the Hall of Justice and locked up in the City Prison, charged with robbery. His three companions disappeared when Blackwell came upon the scene, and have not since been located. Detective Shea was, however, detailed to find them, if possible, since they may be needed as witnesses in the case against Doonan. Silva was locked up on a charge of drunkenness but will probably be released today.

Unfortunately for Silva, the $50 which he says had been snatched from his hand by Doonan was not found by the police when they searched their prisoner, and it is therefore believed that he passed it to a confederate before he started to run away, with Silva in pursuit.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Embassador Clayton has cabled the State Department that the Mexican Government yesterday deposited to his credit $1,420,682 on account of the Pious fund award. The money will be remitted to Archbishop Elvira of San Francisco, the titular claimant, as there have been no assignments to attorneys in interest.

THE STRIKE IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, June 17.—Complications arose early today which may defer a settlement of the hotel and restaurant employees' strike, and there is a chance that it may assume larger dimensions than it has taken up to this time. The trouble has arisen over the question of whether or not the matter of "recognition of the union" is a suitable matter for arbitration. The employers have said that they are willing to arbitrate this question, as well as all others involved, but the men insisted last night that the question of recognition of the union was not one that can be arbitrated. They declared this matter is above and beyond arbitration, and demand that the employers agree to it unconditionally. Matters were at this stage when the meeting adjourned.

EASTERN RACING.

IRISH LAD WILL NOT RUN AGAINST THE GREAT SAVABLE.

Throughout the Eastern racing centers much disappointment is manifested over the fact that Irish Lad is not to run in the American Derby against Savable. It goes without saying that much additional interest would be created in the race were an Eastern favorite pitted against a Western.

Over a half a million dollars has been wagered on Savable, and this is said to be the largest amount ever wagered on one horse. Savable is a Western horse and is the most promising of all of the candidates. The American Derby is one of the classic events of the turf for three-year-olds, and has not been won by a California horse since 1884, when Roy St. Santa Anita carried the Baldwin colts under the wire in the lead.

The best-launched people are the Americans.

WAS FIRST BUT LOST THE RACE

SLOOP ESPEY IN ACTION.

The California Yacht Club races on Sunday were a success. The course was from the southerly pierhead of the Oakland broad-gauge mole to and around Blossom Rock buoy, thence to and around Mission Rock, thence to and up Oakland Creek, finishing across a line drawn from Hay & Wright's shipyard to the foot of Grove street. The distance was officially reckoned as eleven nautical miles.

In the contest for class flags each yacht received the regular time allowance, based upon her racing length, but in the contest for the Owners' cup each boat received a handicap based upon her performances in previous races. In class C the starters were the yawls Gypsy and Pilgrim and the sloops Espey, Secret, Catherine, Surf and Dixie. The elapsed time of Espey was 2:35:21, and her corrected time 2:34:00. This was the best time made by any boat in class C, but a protest was lodged by C. E. Clark of the yawl Gypsy on the ground that the Espey, when on the port tack, had forced the Gypsy to fall off to avoid a collision, the Gypsy being on the starboard tack. The protest being sustained by the regatta committee, the flag goes to C. E. Clark's Gypsy, the elapsed and corrected time of which was 2:35:00.

REGATTA ON THE LAKE.

MANY FEATURES ARE PLANNED FOR THE FOURTH OF JULY.

A feature of the regatta on the Fourth will be the swimming contest. Scott Leary, champion 100-yard swimmer of the United States will compete with the fastest swimmers from the Olympic and Larkin Clubs. This event will take place near the southern corner of the lake. There will be first and second prizes offered for each event. The Civil of the Olympic has a sensational swimming stunt to spring on Oaklanders next Fourth at the lake. The nature of his feat will for obvious reasons not be disclosed.

Jeffries is much interested in the stories about Corbett and his condition and was somewhat amused by the statement that the ex-champion has developed new fighting powers. He seems to be much pleased to hear that Corbett is looking so big and strong. As for the new blow, Jeffries does not place much credence in it, for he does not believe it is possible for any man to learn new blows that have any more power than the old ones after he has been in the business as long as Corbett has.

"You can take a green man with strength and show him how to send out a straight punch and teach him to fight himself, but I don't believe that an old-timer like Corbett can acquire any new power unless he has found the fountain of youth," said the subject. "At any rate, I am not afraid of his new-fangled blows. While he labored when we met before, he never did me great amount of damage and he has more chance than I intend to give him this time."

Jeffries had a good laugh over the reported fake story from Los Angeles and denied the subject was in any way connected with the following:

COSTS NOTHING UNLESS CURED

A Fair Offer Made by Osgood Brothers to All Sufferers from Catarrh. Osgood Brothers are selling Hyomel on a plan that has caused considerable talk amongst customers. The plan is different from that followed by other remedies, but the remedy itself is different also. This treatment for the cure of catarrh has such an unusual record of cures to its credit that Osgood Brothers offer to refund the money if it does not give the desired benefit. This is certainly one of the fairest offers that can be made, and any one who has catarrh and does not take advantage of it is doing himself or herself an injustice. The Hyomel treatment consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomel. The complete treatment costs but $1.00 and as the inhaler will last a life time and there is sufficient Hyomel for more than a month's use, the medicine is very inexpensive. Many people who have used it write that for the good Hyomel has done them they would willingly pay thousands of dollars. Extra bottles of Hyomel can be procured for use with the inhaler at 50c. Do not suffer any longer with tickling, smarting, irritating, burning, eye watering troubles that afflict those who have catarrh. Hyomel will cure you, but if you should not find it adapted to your case, Osgood Brothers will return your money.

OAKLAND TRIBUNE

KENTUCKY'S DISGRACE.

One reads the accounts from Jackson, Kentucky, with mingled feelings of amazement and indignation. The proceedings in the Marston murder trial, and the attending incidents, are an indelible disgrace to Kentucky. The administration of justice appears to be of a cowardly, halting, compromising sort. The civil arm seems to be without virility or resolution. The protection afforded by the militia appears to be of a feeble, tentative, make-believe sort. Even the court proceedings savor of going through certain forms that are to have no result and are not intended to have any.

A deputy sheriff is on trial for shooting down a prominent lawyer in broad daylight in the door of the court house. The very dogs in the village knew he committed the crime, and know also that the county judge and half the residents of the place are in sympathy with the assassination. Witnesses are bullied and threatened with assassination if they tell the truth, almost at the threshold of the court. The chief witness for the prosecution was threatened with assassination, after an attempt to bribe him had failed, and then had his house burned down over the head of his family, within gunshot of the court house. All this is done right under the noses of the militia, and after the trial judge had been informed of the threats and intimidation.

Neither the soldiers nor the judge appear to have any desire to protect witnesses or punish the assassins. The judge's actions are very much open to criticism and suspicion. Ostensibly sent there to protect lawyers, jurors and witnesses, the militia are proving how little they can be depended upon to protect anybody. When two men disguised, one in the garb of a woman, were detected in the house of the chief witness, the officer in command of the troops let them go without even ascertaining their names. Although fully aware of the threats against the life and property of the witness, the officer placed no guard around his house. The judge only made a pretense of giving protection to the threatened witnesses.

What is the matter with Kentucky that murder can stalk red handed and unabashed in the very presence of the courts? Has the law ceased to be of any force or the judicial office to have any integrity? With assassins in the Sheriff's office and sympathizers with murder on the bench, justice has a sorry chance in the Blue Grass State. The situation would shame the mountains of Albania.

The selection of Oscar S. Straus as the third man to umpire the dispute between the San Francisco carmen and the United Railroads is a wise one. A better man for the office could scarcely be found. Mr. Straus is a business man and a philanthropist. He has devoted close and sympathetic study to the relations between labor and capital, and is widely known for his strict regard for justice and his humanitarian principles. Being a man of large wealth amassed in legitimate trade, his view of questions arising from our industrial and social system is that of the statesman and his judgment that of a philanthropist. Having the confidence of the public, as well as the confidence of both parties to the controversy, his decision will be accepted as just and fair. In other words, it will be a decision that will decide, and which will be accepted as an honest and equitable adjudication.

The subject of race suicide continues to worry the old maids. Wonder why?

The Hepper disaster indicates that Oregonians ought to be equipped with wings as well as webbed feet.

The celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of Ohio's admission into the Union warrants the statement that Ohio is a great State, so great that the police of the Republic could hardly stand another. There wouldn't be offices enough.

Senator Depew may be right in saying that strikes are a sign of prosperity but they are not the best signs. In the flush times a live mining camp was indicated by the number of gambling rooms and dance houses, but they didn't contribute to the prosperity of the place. They were the iniquities which accompanied prosperous conditions in the mining region and were nothing to be bragged about. In the same sense strikes may indicate the presence of prosperity, but they are far from producing it or contributing to its continuance. Prosperity thrives no more on idleness and contention than it does on dance halls and faro banks.

Amid all the rejoicing over the smashing of the meat trust in the courts nobody has thought it worth while to inquire whether prices have been lowered by the "victory for the people." A study of butcher bills leads to the conclusion that the people are in the fix of the King of Epirus, who exclaimed after a certain famous battle, "Another such a victory and I am alone!"

GRANT AND LEE.

Comparisons drawn between Ulysses S. Grant and Robert E. Lee have always proved fascinating fields of study for students of character as well as military strategy. Being very dissimilar in training, social habit and in personal traits, the two men operated under conditions equally dissimilar. No man can tell what one would have done in the other's place, or what the outcome would have been had they been pitted against each other on equal terms. Grant was in the flush of an unbroken series of successes when he encountered Lee, while the latter had just sustained the crushing reverse of Gettysburg, a reverse he was without the means or hope of regaining. But he put up a fight around Richmond for nearly a year that showed him to be a consummate master of the art of war. At Spottsylvania, the Wilderness, Cold Harbor and Petersburg, he demonstrated great strategic ability as well as stubborn fighting qualities. The dogged tenacity with which he withstood Grant's incessant hammering is a wonderful example of sustained courage and resolution.

Still, it will perhaps always be a moot question with military critics as to whether the victor or vanquished was the greater commander. Foreign writers are as prone to disagree on this point as Americans. Von Holst accords the palm to Grant on the whole, but Baron von Freytag-Loringhoven, head of the department for war history of the general staff of the German army, takes the opposite view. He thinks Lee was incomparably the greatest soldier America has ever produced, and is an equally ardent admirer of the character of the Confederate chieftain. The baron makes a comparative estimate of the two men in "Studies of the Conduct of War," based on the conduct of the American War of Secession in Virginia, the third volume of which has just come from the press. The work is devoted exclusively to a study of the operations of Lee and his lieutenants and of the forces immediately opposed to them. Consequently Grant is not studied closely till he comes to the army of the Potomac at the opening of the campaign of 1864, after turning the tide of Confederate victory at Chickamauga into the rout of Missionary Ridge. Of Lee, Baron Freytag-Loringhoven speaks in these glowing terms:

"It is eminently difficult to draw comparisons between Lee and the famous captains of European battlefields. Lee worked and acted under conditions that never before confronted leaders of men. He was the equal of the great Frederick in making much out of little, in economizing with men and resources, in reckoning with the enemy's superiority and saving his forces to meet the emergencies of the moment. And, like Moltke, he knew the value of wise restraint, and trusted in the ability and good will of the generals working under his direction.

"No doubt Lee was a great man, of extraordinary capacity for doing things, but his lovable personality towers above the manifestations of his genius even. That personality, more than anything else, gave him his place in history. He was an imposing looking man, sitting his horse with much elegance, and, though grand seigneur by birth, most simple and democratic in his ways. If the soldier suffered from lack of food and shelter so did he. His face was serene with the serenity of the man who, in his heart of hearts, has done with life. Lee was too wise a man not to fear that the awful sacrifices entailed by the war might, after all, be in vain. In this respect, too, he resembled the hero of the seven years' war. Recall the thoughts and reflections that dominated Frederick's soul so frequently after the sorry day of Kollin!

"Lee was perhaps the noblest victim of the war of secession, because he survived the downfall of his cause. What unhappiness, compared with the good luck of the heroic Jackson, the incomparable Stuart, the excellent Hill and others who perished in battle! At the end of the war Lee was a pauper, and this man, who had marshaled hundreds of thousands of men spent the rest of his life teaching. Having led so many men to their death, he longed to prepare the country's youth for life."

The Prussian's estimate of Grant is not so flattering. In character as well as military genius he places the hero of Appomattox below his defeated antagonist. In these lines there is not the warm admiration expressed for Lee:

"His conduct in the battle of Shiloh, Vicksburg and Chattanooga assured his fame as a hero and strategist of high order.

"Grant was a man of tremendous indomitable will power, cold, determined, sober-minded and practical. The resoluteness that marked his every action and his apparent disregard for human life, particularly that of the negro, for whom the North was pretending to fight, characterize him as a man pre-eminently fit for his position.

"The American people are right in according him chief credit for the preservation of the Union, yet Grant cannot really be classed with the nation's greatest. He lacked gifts of mentality as well as those of heart and sentiment. At West Point he was not esteemed a good scholar. In that respect the general of the great republic resembled Wellington, of whom it was said: 'Who would have prophesied glory to this slow, backward boy?' "Undoubtedly it was Grant's surpassing merit that, right from the start, when he became commander-in-chief, he insisted upon taking the offensive, but it should be added that the individual and material resources at his disposal were almost unlimited and that he utilized these shrews of war with brutal vigor rather than special cleverness. Placed as Lee was, Grant would have proved a failure, no doubt."

While the views of the eminent German writer quoted prove nothing, they are interesting because they emanate from one of the foremost living authorities on military strategy and history. It is needless to say Baron Freytag-Loringhoven holds to the orthodox theory that the American volunteer was not a good soldier till he was trained to his work. He gives Lee the credit for creating a veteran army out of raw material quicker than anybody else and handling it more effectively.

A POOR DEPENDENCE.

A contemporary indignantly insists upon the murderers of the royal family of Serbia being punished, expressing the opinion that "civilization will not be satisfied till these bloody assassins are brought to justice."

Civilization is easily satisfied. It is not worried much about a good many things as bad or worse than the dynastic murders in Belgrade. It has kept an easy conscience all the years that the Kurds and Basil-Bazouks have been murdering and outraging Christians in Asia Minor and the Balkan provinces of Turkey. It kept an even countenance while the Russians barbarously murdered thousands of inoffensive Chinese peasants along the Amur river. It watches unmoved the frightful abuse of Poland and Finland. It is not greatly concerned over the persecution of the Jews and the subjugation of the Boers.

For six hundred years it put up with the oppression of Ireland as a matter of course. The expulsion of the Moors and Jews from Spain and the Huguenots from France have been mere incidents in the progress of civilization. Not a few people have contended that they contributed to the general advance. Even chattel slavery went down before political feeling rather than moral sentiment.

Who is to punish the assassins of Alexander and his unsavory consort? The new King mildly says he will, but whoever knew of the beneficiary of assassination to honestly wish its punishment? Peter was undoubtedly partially privy to the plot, and the blood of the slain King was not cold before the murderers began proclaiming Karagorgevitch his successor. The shouts for Peter that attended the sword thrusts at Alexander indicate the rigor with which the new monarch will prosecute the assassins.

The powers will not interfere. It is no concern of theirs. The revolution does not affect their interests in any way. Besides, the new King is connected with the reigning house of Italy, and is friendly to Russia and France. The punishment of Serbian murderers will be left to the Serbian courts, and the cries of "Long live Peter" will drown the demand for justice. Civilization will be called on in vain to avenge treachery and assassination. Civilization has its own rascally skirts to look after.

The London Times' desire for a broader basis of taxation is contradicted by its selection of the workingman's stomach as the new basis. The entitled landed estate would sound more like it.

It is a pity that in changing the name of the Record-Union back to its ancient title of Sacramento Union, the new owner of the paper did not retain the style of letter under which the paper became famous in the early days, in getting back to the original title, the fitness of things would have been observed by retaining the original form. This is a matter of taste and association, however, which does not affect the quality of the journal. Mr. Holman, the new proprietor, is a capable journalist, who can be depended on to maintain the high standard which has been a distinguishing characteristic of the Union since its first publication. Mr. Holman has won his spurs, both as a writer and a publisher, in two States.

HORSE'S AGE.

"The groom that came to Chester with Old Abalah, the sire of Hambletonian, forty-five years ago," said a veteran Orange County horseman, "told me how to tell the age of a horse, and it has run in my head ever since. This is the way it ran," and he repeated the following rhyme:

To tell the age of any horse, Inspect the lower jaw, of course. The six front teeth in the jaw will tell, And every doubt and fear dispel.

The middle "nippers" you behold Before the colt is two weeks old; Before eight weeks two more will come; Eight months the "corners" cut the gum.

The outside grooves will disappear From middle two in just one year; In two years from the second pair; In three the "corners," too, are bare.

At two the middle "nippers" drop; At three, the second pair can't stop; When four years old, the third pair goes. At five, the full new set he shows.

The deep black spots will pass from view. At six years from the middle two; The second pair at seven years; At eight, the spot each "corner" clears.

From middle "nippers" upper jaw. At nine the black spots will disappear. The second pair at ten are white; Eleven finds the corners light.

As time goes on the horsemen know The oval teeth three-sided grow; They longer get, project before 'Till twenty, when we know no more. —Chester (N. Y.) Cor. New York Sun.

TEDDY TOLD US SO.

Some of the lessons we learned of the President during his recent visit to this coast:

We haven't got a single vice, For Teddy told us so; We never knew we were so nice.

Till Teddy told us so; We knew we had a fine big State, Way out here in the Golden Gate, But didn't know we were so "Great," Till Teddy told us so.

We have great mountains, mammoth trees, For Teddy told us so; There's none on earth like unto these, For Teddy told us so.

We have the very choicest flowers, And purring streams, and sylvan bowers, There are in all this world of ours, For Teddy told us so.

Our ladies are the dearest things— For Teddy told us so; They're Angels, all except the wings, For Teddy told us so.

Our buxom, dark-eyed Western girls Have forms divine, bewitching curls, And eyes like diamonds, teeth like pearls, For Teddy told us so.

Our babies are the cutest kids, For Teddy told us so; They're just as smart as Katy-dids, For Teddy told us so.

Our skies are bright, the bay is blue, Our sunsets are of gorgeous hue, Strange, isn't it, we never knew, Till Teddy told us so.

ENGAGEMENT OF WILLIAM MEIN
AND MISS FORE IS FORMALLY ANNOUNCED.

The engagement has been formally announced by Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Fore of their daughter, Miss Pauline, to William Mein, son of Mrs. Thomas Mein of this city. Miss Fore, who is the eldest daughter of the house, has just returned from a visit to her sister in Southern California. She has many accomplishments, including musical, literary and dramatic. She is very beautiful and has a host of friends in Oakland, San Francisco and vicinity.

Mr. Mein is a mining expert in South Africa, having been there for several years. Although quite young he stands high in his profession. He is a graduate of the Oakland High School and has always made his home in Oakland, with the exception of the years spent in South Africa.

The wedding will take place late in the fall, but the entire details are not as yet completed. The young people will go to Johannesburg, where they will make their home for an indefinite period.

MISS KATE CLEMENT, one of the most popular young women in Oakland society will be married this evening to Dixwell Hewitt of San Francisco. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's mother at 1703 Telegraph avenue.

and Elsie Hendrick, Walter, Edith, Lillian, Beatrice and Edward Hendrick.

GAVE A RECEPTION

The Hagar home on Prospect Heights was the scene last night of a large and pleasant affair being complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore, who have just returned from their wedding trip. Over 300 invitations had been sent out and the artistic little residence was crowded with friends eager to congratulate the happy couple.

Among the many handsome wedding gifts was one in particular which attracted much attention—a portrait in water color of Miss Louise Hagar, which was painted and given to the bride by Miss Marion Kavanaugh, the talented Chicago artist.

The floral decorations last evening were unusually pretty, some very pleasing effects being obtained in the reception-room with pink roses and asparagus ferns, a great bunch of purple iris filling one corner. The garden was lighted with colored lanterns and the gayly decorated tea-house, with its red lights and masses of scarlet geraniums was most attractive. Here refreshments were served, the tables being presided over by a bevy of the bride's young friends.

During the evening the Orpheus Club Quartet sang a number of its favorite selections.

Mrs. Hagar was assisted in receiving by the members of the Philia Club, a small organization which includes many of Mrs. Moore's most intimate friends and of which she is a popular member. Some very beautiful gowns were worn by the ladies of the receiving party, the bride herself being attired in a becoming dress of violet silk mull, made over violet tulle. The full skirted bodice had a transparent yoke of white net, spangled, and both skirt and bodice were elaborately trimmed with bands of violet ribbon.

Assisting Mrs. Hagar were Miss Louise

"THE DUSTY MILLER"

And White Bread.

Most millers are bitter enemies of Grape-Nuts for business reasons. For Grape-Nuts food is largely replacing white bread for Grape-Nuts contains the whole of the health-giving grains while the patent white flour in universal use today is made with the most healthful part of the wheat left out.

A miller of Newark, Ohio, who has quoted the subject, says of Grape-Nuts: "I began using the food once a day, then twice a day and for the last six months three times a day and I confidently affirm that I have received more real substantial benefit from the use of Grape-Nuts than from all the other things I have tried. My trouble was indigestion and kidney disease."

"I began to receive relief at once and as I am a practical millwright and miller as well I can see and understand the philosophy of such a statement as Grape-Nuts and why its use gives such good results. The continued use of patent flour bread will produce injury sooner or later because the true life-sustaining and life-giving elements of the wheat berry are eliminated in the manufacture of patent flour."

"My unasked-for advice to all is to use daily a nutriment like Grape-Nuts that retains the vitality of the grain. For this very reason there is more direct virtue in the daily use of Grape-Nuts than in all the medicinal tonics in the world that crowd to overflowing the shelves of drug stores."

The restaurant where I take my meals keeps Grape-Nuts on hand to accommodate me and others who eat to five and enjoy life and health."

Grape-Nuts can be served in a variety of ways—from plain bread fast food to the novel and delicious Grape-Nuts Life Cream. See the Little red book in each package.

SEPARATE SCHOOL FOR THE MONGOLIANS. ROUTINE WORK OF BOARD. GAVE PARTY IN PREPARING BOAT HOUSE. TROUBLE OVER ARCHITECTS FINALLY SETTLED.

Chinese and Japanese Will Have a Department for Their Exclusive Use.

BERKELEY, June 17.—A separate school for Chinese and Japanese students is the latest proposed addition to the Berkeley department. According to the last school census there were seventeen Mongolians in the local schools. But this only takes into account those of "school age"; in all there are about twenty-five Orientals pursuing educational work in the classic university town.

It is to provide for these students that a separate class is to be organized. For some time the question of what to do with the yellow neighbors has been a troublesome one. Some of the directors have gone so far as to suggest the exclusion of Japanese and Chinese from the public schools, but this, of course, would have been inconsistent with the principle of the American system. As an alternative it is proposed to establish the separate school. The ground for the objection to the foreigners is that they consume an undue amount of teachers' time, and that in some cases parents object to their children associating with the children from across the waters. The proposed school will be held only half of each day and will be in charge of a teacher at a salary of $25 a month. It was proposed at last night's meeting of the Board of Education on the recommendation of the Committee. The chief mover in the plan has been Director Schmidt.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS ATTEND TO MANY MATTERS OF IMPORTANCE.

BERKELEY, June 17.—At their meeting last night, the School Directors had considerable routine business to transact. Two vacancies in the department had to be filled, contracts awarded for supplies and work and many bills paid. Following is a brief account of the routine work:

The contract for painting the Longfellow school was awarded to S. G. Brown. J. F. Keamen was elected principal of the Columbus school to succeed Mr. Root, who was made a teacher of history in the high school at the last meeting of the board.

Miss Lillian Chaso was elected a teacher in the school department to succeed Miss Devine, who tendered her resignation. Miss Amy Badger, who has been substituting in the McKinley school, sent a communication asking that an alleged mistake in her salary be rectified. While teaching in the place of Mrs. Partridge, Miss Badger received the regular teacher's salary for only the full month. She asked that she be allowed the regular salary for the full time. Principal Bledsoe said that Miss Badger had received a proper compensation. The communication was placed on file.

Miss Josephine Roller resigned as teacher of English in the high school, and Miss Bertha Brandt, daughter of Professor Bradley of the University of California, was elected to take her place. Superintendent of Schools Waterman was granted a leave of absence until the next meeting of the board.

The following report of the finance committee was accepted and warrants ordered drawn for the several amounts: Joseph Rogers, $12.50; West End Printing Co., $6.75; Henry Seckamp, $24.50; Mrs. C. NOVEL AFFAIR IS GIVEN BY A BERKELEY WOMAN.

BERKELEY, June 17.—An old horse car, formerly used on the line to West Berkeley, was put to a novel use yesterday at a party given by Mrs. C. F. Leibnitz to her daughter, Edith, at their residence, 1921 Delaware street. After the children had tired of games they went out into the yard where the old car stood, all decked out with cushions. Inside were refreshments, to which the young folks did ample justice.

YOUNG MEN MEET AND FORM A CLUB.

BERKELEY, June 17.—First steps toward the establishment of a Young Men's Christian Association in this city were taken last night at a meeting held in the rear rooms of the First Baptist Church. According to their preliminary announcement the young men decided to organize a Christian Club, which will eventually affiliate with the association. For the present they will look for rooms to serve as headquarters and will try to build up their club as rapidly as possible.

TO BE REORGANIZED.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Full plans for the reorganization of the Trust Company of the Republic have been completed, according to the Herald. The central feature will be the reduction of the capital stock from $1,000,000 to $500,000, thus charging against the former capital of the company $500,000 to meet the obligations incurred by the attempt to buy up the United States Shipbuilding Company. There also will be a reduction in the number of the board of directors. The new board will consist of thirteen members. The old board numbered twenty-six. It is understood that Winthrop E. Scarett will be president of the new company.

APPROVES CHAMBERLAIN'S DEED.

CAPE TOWN, June 17.—P. C. Spring, in the course of a debate in Parliament on the South African customs convention, has taken occasion to refer in terms of warm approval to Cecil Secretary Chamberlain's preferential tariff proposals. He said although he had always been an ardent free trader he was bound to admit that there was something greater than free trade—namely, the consolidation of the empire.

BIOLOGISTS MAKE READY FOR SUMMER WORK AT CORONADO.

BERKELEY, June 17.—Professor W. E. Ritter, head of the department of biology at the University of California, has arrived in San Diego, where he is to conduct the summer session in the boat-house on Coronado bay, which is on the Coronado side of San Diego bay. Already he has made arrangements with Juan Cabral, a Portuguese fisherman, for the use of the steam craft which is to be used in collecting marine specimens. The boat-house is being fitted up for the summer's work, which begins on the 25th. Only advanced students are to be allowed to take work at this summer school, as it is the intention of Professor Ritter to make an extensive study as possible of the marine forms of life of this latitude, through the assistance of those students whose previous work and study has made them competent to aid in the investigations.

HE MISSED A TRICK.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Because Russell Sage made a mistake in the date on which "swearing off" and corrections could be made in taxes, he will have to meet personal taxes this year on an assessment of $2,000,000. It was presumed when Mr. Sage did not appear at the Tax Collector's office for the purpose of "swearing off" his assessment of $2,000,000 before March 1, that he was willing to allow the increase to go unprotected. In past years he has been assessed for only $800,000.

The multimillionaire has sent a letter of protest to the Tax Collector explaining the matter, but the books are finally closed.

TAKEN TO COURT.

NEW YORK, June 17.—District Attorney Jerome has announced the starting of John Doe proceedings in the matter of the alleged dock board scandals before Justice Yeama of the Court of Special Sessions.

Compromise is Effected and Work Will Begun at Once on Proposed Addition.

BERKELEY, June 17.—The unpleasant misunderstanding incident to engaging an architect for the proposed addition to the local school was brought to a happy termination last night when a compromise was effected at the meeting of the Board of Education. Both architects were allowed to show their plans and the work was divided between them, though there was a close contest before the matter was adjusted.

Architect Pfaff showed his plans first. After Architect Stone had also shown his the board took a ballot to accept those of one or the other for the Whitaker School. On the first ballot Stone received three votes and Pfaff three. Director Weir did not vote. On the second and third ballots the same vote was cast. The board then passed on to the Lincoln School. But here, too, the vote stood three to three, Weir still refusing to vote. The board then passed on to the McKinley School, for which Stone alone had drawn plans. The architect was instructed to draw up plans and specifications and to go ahead with the work.

A motion was then made to award the Lincoln School to Stone, and it was carried five to two. A similar motion was made to give Pfaff the Whitaker School, and this motion also carried. No award was made in regard to the Russ Street School.

With the work thus divided between the two architects, the matter seemed amicably settled, but towards the end of the meeting Director Weir tendered his resignation from the School House and Sites Committee. It was, however, laid on the table.

collejo vacation in this neighborhood were situated, the largest asparagus beds in the world. Not only is the present method of spraying inefficient in killing the rust, but it is an expensive process. Professor Smith will endeavor to get rid of the rust in some other way. This peculiar disease, which causes the plant to blacken and die after the crop has been picked, has long been known in the East. But it has only been during the last year or so that it has begun to ravage in this State. Asparagus raising is one of the chief interests in the country about Alhambra, and should Professor Smith be successful it will mean a great saving to the country.

CLAIMS AGAINST HONDURAS

NEW YORK, June 17.—The Congress Committee appointed to report on the offer of William Hain, agent of the foreign bond holders, who proposes to scale the claims of his clients (nearly $40,000,000) down to $1,200,000, together with the possession of the existing railroad, the forests and the mines of the republic, has reported against the acceptance of the proposition, says a dispatch from Tegucigalpa, Honduras.

The committee asserts that Honduras owes, in reality, only $500,000. While submitting this report, the committee authorized the President to take proper steps to bring about a settlement of the bondholders' claims on a basis of justice toward the republic.

FRUITVALE AUTOMOBILISTS DID NOT OBEY THE LAW.

FRUITVALE, June 17.—George Hoyt and John H. Spring, two of Fruitvale's most ardent chauffeurs, took an automobile ride to Golden Gate the other evening to look over some of the latter's property. On the return trip, the kerosene all burned out in the lamp and an officer arrested them for running without a light. They were obliged to put up a bail of $5, before they could secure their release. Then some kindhearted Golden Gate residents invited the gentlemen up into a central hall where a delicious refreshment of warm ice cream and cake was a balm for their hurt feelings. But the automobilists declined with thanks, as they did not believe themselves capable of eating $5 worth of ice cream. The men arrived home in a rather depressed state of mind about 2 p. m. When their case was called in the court, they failed to appear and plead, so their bail was declared forfeited. One of the gentlemen has already endeavored to climb a telegraph pole with his machine, and the other a hedge fence. They consider the last episode, however, with something of regret.

ELMHURST WOMAN MUST BE WARE OF DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

ELMHURST, June 17.—It is not probable that Mrs. Abena, mother of Mary Carago, of Fourteenth street, will make another attempt to regain her child. Mrs. C. Carago, the girl's legal mother, with her attorney, Dudley Kinsel, has interdicted district Attorney Allen in regard to the frequent attempts of Mrs. Abena to secure her daughter. Mrs. Carago wrote the woman a very severe letter, insisting that if she and her husband do not desist from their numerous kidnapping attempts, legal means would be taken to prevent them. The only trouble with the threat is that the woman is unable to read. Mrs. Carago alleges that Mrs. Abena is not a fit person to care for her children. LIVERMORE PEOPLE BELIEVE THE TOWN SHOULD SUPPORT MODERN APPLIANCES.

LIVERMORE, June 17.—The picnic given at Antona Valle Grove by the Livermore Fire Department, was a social success, as everyone present had a good time. Owing to the weather, which was cold and windy, the crowd which would otherwise have availed itself of the day's outing, was absent and as a consequence the financial end of the affair did not turn out very well.

WANT FIRE ENGINE.
Fire Chief McVicar is testing all the hydrants to assure himself that they will be found in proper condition when an emergency arises. At the next meeting the Board of Town Trustees will be asked to put in an extra hydrant in the vicinity of the old Stevens warehouse, as in case of a fire the large structure would prove a hard task for the department to handle as the hydrants are now located.

An alarm was turned in last Saturday afternoon at 5:50 o'clock and in four minutes after the first tap of the bell the hose was connected with the hydrant at the corner of the Hotel Washington. The alarm was caused by the zeal of Marshal Smith in burning the dry grass off a vacant lot without announcing his intention to do so to all the residents in the surrounding blocks. The smoke being observed by some one, they yelled fire and those nearest to the bell rang it long and loudly. It was no loss at the part of the department, just an ordinary fire alarm and the time in which they got ready was remarkably considering that Saturday is a busy day with all the business men, who mostly compose the fire department. The article most lacking now is a steam engine and the town is financially well able to supply that defect. The subject is being discussed earnestly at present, and if a few of the property owners would appear before the board at its next meeting their hopes would undoubtedly be realized. The fire department should not be handicapped for lack of the necessary appliances and when they have received their present state of efficiency and are prepared to give the best that is in them to protect the lives and property of the citizens, they deserve all the moral and financial support that the town can give them.

COUNCILMEN MEET ON SUNDAY. ENJOY HOSPITALITY OF B. H. PENDLETON'S HOME ON WEBSTER STREET.

The present Council has a "social" element in it which has been found wanting in many of its predecessors. H. Pendleton, 1303 Webster street. On these grounds there are unobtrusive trees and a privacy which were gratifying in the extreme.

There were present Councilmen Elmer, Tancus, Wallace, Cuvellier, Altken, Elliott, McAdam, Mense and the host himself.

SOCIALISTS WIN.

THEY GET THE BEST OF THE ELECTIONS HELD IN BERLIN.

BERLIN, June 17.—The Socialists' victory at the Reichstag elections yesterday were largely at the expense of the two radical parties, who voted as the Socialists did in the last Reichstag on tariff, military and naval affairs. Hence, on these questions, the new house is not distinctly different from the old one. The official returns from 330 constituencies are: Socialists, 58; Center party, 60; Conservatives, 21; Free Conservatives, 40; Poles, 5; other factions, 12. Total number of members elected, 441. Second elections are required in 143 constituencies. The failure of either of the radical parties to get a single seat does not mean that they will not get a number of members at the second election, as then their candidates will be supported by all the anti-Socialist parties.

A. A. MOORE WILL PRESENT CASE.

Attorney A. A. Moore will conduct the case for the United Railroads in San Francisco before the arbitrators. In presenting testimony as to statistics and Ward, bacteriologist and veterinarian of living and other data bearing upon the differences between the company and its employees, he will be assisted by Professor Carl Plehn, head of the department of economics at the University of California. Professor Plehn will act in the capacity of an expert, for which purpose the corporation has employed him.

DISEASES OF CATTLE.

BERKELEY, June 17.—Diseases of cattle, with especial reference to those of the Pacific Coast, are to be treated in a bulletin being prepared by Dr. A. R. Ward, bacteriologist and veterinarian of the University of California. Dr. Ward has been working on the publication for the last six months, both in studying the disease and in preparing manuscript. All of the matter is now in the hands of the printer, who will soon have the bulletin ready for distribution. The two diseases which receive the most attention are hog cholera and anthrax, both of which have greatly bothered the cattle men of this coast, and a solution of which will prove of great benefit.

WILL UNIONIZE PLANTS.

HELENA, Mont., June 17.—The American Book Company here has filed an agreement with the State Text Book Commission, now engaged in the consideration of bids for text books for the public schools of Montana, to unionize its plants. The last Legislature enacted a law requiring the commission to contract only for books containing the union label. This action ends a long standing war of this company with the International Typographical Union.

TRAVELER IS PRISONER.

TANGIER, Morocco, June 17.—Walter B. Harris, the traveler and author, who was a member of Sir Arthur Nicholson's special embassy to the Sultan of Morocco last year, is a prisoner of the mountaineers at Zenat, the headquarters of the bands of Raisuli. Government troops attacked the place yesterday, burning many farms, but they did not succeed in rescuing Mr. Harris.

Their Advertisements in The Tribune

Always Bring the Results Desired.

TRIBUNE MANIFESTLY SUPERIOR.

Permit us to say that THE TRIBUNE is a credit to Oakland. As a newspaper it is manifestly superior and as an advertising medium is without a superior. THE TRIBUNE leads.

OAKLAND CARRIAGE AND IMPLEMENT CO.

A. C. Passmore, Sec'y-Treas. 364-368 Twelfth Street, Oakland, Cal., June 16, 1903.

WHY TRIBUNE IS THE BEST MEDIUM.

THE TRIBUNE holds its place as the best advertising medium because of its general excellence as a newspaper. No other journal covers the local field so thoroughly as does THE TRIBUNE. This is a fact advertisers understand fully.

Oakland, Cal., June 16, 1903. Photographer, 1111 Washington St.

TRIBUNE THE MOST POPULAR PAPER.

According to my observation THE TRIBUNE is more popular with readers and advertisers than any other paper in Oakland, I find it everywhere, and it prints by far the most advertisements. That's the whole story. THE TRIBUNE is a splendid newspaper.

CHAS. SCHARFF,

Maison de l'Opera, 416 Fourteenth Street,

Oakland, Cal., June 16, 1903.

THE TRIBUNE'S LEAD IS APPARENT.

It hardly seems necessary to state that THE TRIBUNE is the leading paper in Alameda County, the fact is so apparent and so universally admitted, of course it is the best advertising medium in Oakland. The only daily paper we advertise in, is THE TRIBUNE.

KIEL & EVANS CO.,

Carrriages and Harness, 224-228-228 San Pablo Avenue,

Oakland, Cal., June 16, 1903.

TRIBUNE BETTER THAN EVER.

I have observed many marked improvements in THE TRIBUNE of late. It has always been a first-class advertising medium for Oakland merchants, but it is better now than ever. Have used the columns of your paper for fifteen years and believe they have been of material assistance to me in building up my business.

I. A. BERETTA,

Optician,

Oakland, Cal., June 16, 1903.

TRIBUNE ADVERTISING PAYS THE BEST.

As a purely business proposition, advertising in THE TRIBUNE yields better returns than any other medium in this community. That THE TRIBUNE is so generally taken and read is proof of its popularity.

W. WILSON,

Oakland, Cal., June 16, 1903.

BY FAR THE BEST PAPER IN OAKLAND.

I have been a steady advertiser in THE TRIBUNE for many years, and am satisfied with it. THE TRIBUNE is by far the best paper in Oakland. I have never utilized any other Oakland newspaper as a medium of advertising.

BARBARA ALLEN,

Proprietor Galindo Hotel, Oakland, Cal., June 16, 1903.

THE BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

I have advertised in THE TRIBUNE ever since I have been in the optical business in Oakland, covering a period of four years, and I can truly say I have derived excellent results from the columns of that paper. I highly recommend it as the best advertising medium for large returns published in Alameda county.

F. W. LAUFER,

Optician and Optical Goods, 1001 Washington street,

Oakland, June 13, 1903.

ADVERTISES EXCLUSIVELY IN THE TRIBUNE.

I use the columns of THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE exclusively for advertising my business. I find that my ads in this paper have invariably brought me big returns, and I shall continue to use THE TRIBUNE, which I consider one of the best daily papers on the coast.

B. BERCOVICH,

Cigars and Tobacco, Broadway and Twelfth streets,

Oakland, June 13, 1903.

TRIBUNE PROSPEROUS AND ENTERPRISING.

Since starting in business in Oakland I have utilized the columns of THE TRIBUNE in advertising my business. I have always received large results from my investment, and will continue to patronize THE TRIBUNE, which I consider one of the most progressive and enterprising papers published on the Pacific Coast.

B. LISSNER,

Jeweler and Optician, 1108 Washington street,

DEVOTED TO LIVE POLICIES.

THE TRIBUNE has a strong position in the community, having always been progressive and devoted to live policies. We consider it an excellent advertising medium.

Wholesale Butchers, Oakland, Cal., June 16, 1903.

MOST PROFITABLE ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

THE TRIBUNE is the newest and most readable paper published in Oakland and is the most profitable advertising medium.

MRS. W. WEIR,

Proprietor Hotel Brunswick, Washington and Tenth streets,

Oakland, Cal., June 15, 1903.

LABORS TO BUILD UP OAKLAND.

THE TRIBUNE is the old reliable stand-by among Oakland newspapers. It is always abreast with the times and labors unceasingly to build up the city's industries. It is deservedly popular with readers and advertisers and we think it the best paper published in the city of Oakland.

The Oakland Street Fair and Carnival this year represents, in an unusual degree, the intelligence, the enterprise and the unity of the commercial, industrial and social life of the people of this city. The undertaking, as a consequence, will be representative of all the people, and not alone of this city, but a set of all the people in Alameda and the surrounding counties, because Oakland has become the metropolis for a large section of country, which was heretofore tributary to San Francisco in the matter of amusement as well as all kinds of business.

Now, the tide of trade and pleasure-seekers stops on the eastern shore of the bay and people on the other side marvel at the places of business and the structures for entertainment, which are springing into existence in all parts of the plateau. No such street fair as that which is now being arranged has ever been attempted in San Francisco since the Midwinter Fair. But there was a great deal in that which nobody cared to see. That will not be the case, however, with the Oakland Fair and Carnival.

There will be features in that which have never been presented on the coast before. There will be something to satisfy the taste of every person by day and by night, and an opportunity will be afforded everybody to see these at the lowest possible price. It will be a rare chance to pass hours in pleasure and recreation and there is no doubt that people will profit by the enterprise, which has been displayed by so many of their own townsmen. In this connection, there are published portraits of a few of the gentlemen who are engaged in preparing the great show.

CALLS A SPECIAL SESSION.

KANSAS LEGISLATURE WILL TAKE UP THE FLOOD QUESTION.

TOPEKA, Kansas, June 17.—Governor Bailey today issued the following proclamation, calling the Legislature together in special session:

"Whereas, The recent floods have, in addition to the vast amount of property, swept away numerous bridges, the immediate rebuilding of which is imperative, but for which no adequate law exists, thereby bringing about an extraordinary occasion within the meaning of the constitution authorizing a special session of the Legislature. Now, therefore, I, W. J. Bailey, Governor of the State of Kansas, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the constitution, do hereby convene the Legislature of the State of Kansas in special session, at the capitol, in the city of Topeka, on Wednesday, June 24, 1903, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of enabling the county and other municipalities to build necessary bridges."

It took the jury just five minutes to bring in their verdict. Starr had been causing the saloonmen of Hayward much trouble by robbing their slot machines.

DAMAGED BY RAIN.

BIG TIMBER, Mont., June 17.—The damage from the recent heavy rains on the Northern Pacific, between here and Billings, was even worse than was at first supposed. Oliver Bassett of Park City lost about 250 head of sheep. The sheep-shearing pens of Cabot Thomas were swamped away. Traffic was resumed yesterday on the Northern Pacific.

KING SAYS GOOD LUCK.

SIR THOMAS LIPTON IS GIVEN A HEARTY FAREWELL.

LONDON, June 17.—There was a large gathering of people at the Euston railroad station today to bid goodbye to Sir Thomas Lipton who started for Liverpool to board the steamer Oceanic for New York. The crowd cheered him heartily while Sir Thomas waved his farewell. On the same train was J. P. Morgan, who was also cheered by the Lipton contingent. King Edward telegraphed to Sir Thomas Lipton as follows: "As you are just about leaving for America, let me wish you a prosperous journey and all possible good luck for the great race in August."

SHIP SAILED AT MIDNIGHT.

WILL TRY AND LOCATE THE NORTH POLE ON ITS TRIP.

CHRISTIANA, Norway, June 17.—The whaling ship Glos, with Captain Amundsen's magnetic north pole expedition on board, sailed at midnight.

It has been announced that the Amundsen expedition will first go to King Williamland, on the east coast of Greenland, and will then proceed to Behring straits. If Captain Amundsen is able to follow the course projected it will take him almost across the pole. Captain Amundsen, who is a Norwegian, was the first officer of the Belgica in Gerlach's Antarctic expedition of 1897-98. After his return Amundsen consulted with Professor Neumayer of Hamburg, the leading authority on terrestrial magnetism, who informed him that the expert determination of the earth's magnetic north pole would be of the greatest value to science. The expedition is equipped for a four-years' stay in the Arctic regions.

The directors have elected the following officers: John Hard, president; F. A. Widdows, vice-president and F. D. Frost, cashier.

CHURCHES WERE WRECKED BY FLOOD.

PEOPLE HEARD THE ROARING OF THE HEPPENER CLOUD-BURST.

LEXINGTON, Ore., June 17.—At this point the roaring of the Heppner cloud burst was heard some time in advance of its arrival. As a direct consequence of this no lives were lost and the property loss is confined to buildings. The largest individual loser is probably John Hill, a rancher. All his possessions were destroyed except the ground on which his dwelling stood. His stock, cattle, horses, hogs, wagons, house and furniture were all caught in the rising torrent and swept down the valley. While the flood was not as high here as at Heppner, the surface of Willow Creek rose fifteen feet above its normal level.

The Methodist church was lifted up, twisted around and then swept like a giant cannon ball against the Congregational church a thousand feet away. Both places of worship were completely wrecked. Immediately after the passage of the water, rescue parties were organized to aid the stricken citizens of Heppner. The first parties which made a rapid journey from Lexington to Heppner found in their hurried search six bodies. There undoubtedly more of the missing in the wreckage above the town. It will be impossible to thoroughly search all of this wreckage and many of the bodies will in all probability never be recovered.
